

Estate Sales & Household Transitions

Our Customers Speak . . .

From Mason in Charleston, SC: "Ed and his team at Next Chapter are lifesavers! I was drowning in boxes of items after I sold my house. With almost 30 years of collectibles, house wares, art, you name it; the garage at my current home was packed to the hilt. I was totally overwhelmed until Ed threw me a life line. He and his team categorized, cleaned and displayed everything without me having to lift a finger. I was so amazed at how beautiful all of my things looked when on display at the sale; I had to think twice about giving them up. It was time to let go and I thank Ed for making my life so much simpler. Shedding layers of 'stuff' is liberating! Thanks again to Ed and his terrific team! It was effortless! I wish I had called them sooner."
