

Estate Sales & Household Transitions

Our Customers Speak . . .

From Bain in Albemarle, NC. After the passing of my mom in spring of 2016, we were faced with finding new homes for nearly 65 years of collecting that filled our home of nearly 6,000 square feet with antique furniture, books, crystal, china, linens, and all sorts of vintage pieces. Our parents loved to entertain, and my mom was meticulous in having the right pieces for the right occasion. Thankfully, Next Chapter stepped in to manage the overwhelming task of unpacking and displaying everything in a way that would have made our parents proud. And, they presented a sale that the entire community enjoyed!
